VISIT TYPE: Office Visit Established

CHIEF COMPLAINT: Hives

HISTORY OF PRESENT ILLNESS: Mr. Lawson is a 30 yo male here today for hives. He states he ran out of Vraylar around March 17th or so. Around March 23 he broke out in hives. He has tried several otc meds to help with no relief to include benadryl and triamcinolone cream. He has a history of hives secondary to anxiety in the past. He has not had a flare up since being on Vraylar. Our office has attempted to refill his Vraylar, however his insurance will not approve the medication. He has been referred to psych. His appt is April 19th. He denies SI/HI. He does report foggy head, highs and lows, difficulty getting out of bed, and an eye twitch since running out of his medication as well as increased anxiety.
